

Olga Cavalli

Olga Cavalli is an Internet leader whose work has been fundamental for enhancing a relevant participation of Latin America and the Caribbean in Internet Governance. In 2007 she co-founded the South School on Internet Governance

During 2007- 2014 she was distinguished by the United Nations Secretary General, being chosen to be a part of the Internet Governance Forum's Multistakeholder Advisory Group, MAG.

Recognized by ISOC as a "Game Changer", Olga works towards the inclusion of girls and women in ICTs and the Internet, organizing activities jointly with ISOC, ISOC Argentina Chapter, ITU, UNESCO, ICANN, the Argentina National Center of Engineers and the University of Buenos Aires.

In 2012 she co-founded Dominios Latinoamerica, a news website and a conference focused on online tools for the productivity of SMEs and entrepreneurs of the Latin American and Caribbean region. Website includes content in Spanish, English and Portuguese.

She is the Argentina Representative in the ICANN Governmental Advisory Committee, GAC.

Olga is a Teacher at the University of Buenos Aires, the President of the ISOC Argentina Chapter. She is also a member of the ISOC Board of Trustees.

Her education includes a PhD in Business Direction, a Master degree in Business Administration, a Master degree in Telecommunications Regulation, and Electronic and Electric Engineer.

She is fluent in Spanish, English, Portuguese and German, and can understand French and Italian.

Olga lives in Buenos Aires and is the mother of Juana and Federico.