

Jeffrey Davis

Jeffrey Davis Jusino is currently a studying his MSCIS with a major in cyber security and a minor in networking technologies from Boston University.

He is actually an IT director and approved instructor for CompTIA, Cisco and Mile2. He is a certified vulnerability assessor with a specialization in ethical white hat hacking and other industry certifications. More than 18 years experience as an IT Consultant and freelancer with professional contracts such as project management, IT deployment, auditing and 9 years as an IT Instructor. He is very enthusiastic in technology and always willing to serve as a resource to improve people's lives.

Jeffrey also has BBA in Management and human resources, he has been an information society member since February 2016. Participated of the SEED 2017 workshop Hands-On Labs for Security Education at Syracuse University by Dr.Wenliang Du. He joined the first North American School of Internet Governance (NASIG) in Puerto Rico willing to improve his knowledge on internet governance in order to be able to collaborate in projects for cyber-security, equity, integrity, ethics and rights for all.